

Tuesday 23

Pray for the many widows in EE and C. Asia who are provided for through the financial support of SGA. May believing widows be encouraged through this practical help. Pray that unbelieving widows will come to faith as they see Christ's love in action through the care given.

Wednesday 24

Pray for SGA Finance Co-ordinator Martyn Pearson, his wife Amanda and family in the W. Mids. Martyn also serves as a voluntary representative for the Mission. May he be greatly used of the Lord and know encouragement in his daily walk.

Thursday 25

Pray for SGA Office Administrative Assistant, Lisa Chow and her husband Chi Wah & family, living in Rugby. May she know wisdom and help as she seeks to support the work in the Rugby Office.

Friday 26

Pray that Staff member Wayne O'Leary and his wife Iris, in Tewkesbury, Glos, will know the Lord's hand upon them. Wayne represents SGA in the English Midlands and Mid Wales. May he be a blessing to every congregation he visits.

Saturday 27 & Sunday 28

SGA-sponsored Hope Centres in C. Asia provide practical support to local communities in predominantly Muslim countries. Not only do they seek to meet the physical and material needs of those who come, but also share the Gospel with them and their families. Pray that more Hope Centres will be established.

Monday 29

Pray for Office Administrator Sharon Howard and her husband Andy. May she know the Lord's blessing as she undertakes much of the practical work of the Mission.

Tuesday 30

Pray for the Radio Ministry in Poland, Romania and Central Asia. We thank God for this opportunity to spread the Gospel over the airwaves, and also be a help to persecuted Christians.

WE GIVE THANKS FOR ANSWERED PRAYER

Thank you for praying for camp ministry in E Europe and C Asia over the Summer months. SGA sponsored camps in Poland, Moldova, Ukraine, Mongolia and across all five C Asian countries were greatly used of the Lord.

Praise the Lord for the two aircraft that are being deployed in FE Russia, for different ministries. Teams were transported to isolated communities to conduct camps.

Slavic Gospel Association

Prayer Bulletin

November 2021

Print Edition

22 Little Church Street, Rugby
Warwickshire CV21 3AW
Tel 01788 220699
E-mail office@sga.org.uk
www.sga.org.uk

Much Prayer · Much Power

Monday 1

Pray for Clive Langston and his wife Margaret living in Worthing. Pray that he will be greatly used as he serves the Lord in deputation work in the southeast of England and establishes contacts with churches in that area.

Tuesday 2

Dr Paul Negrut is Rector of Emanuel Christian University, Oradea, ROMANIA, and a pastor in Emanuel Baptist Church. Pray for him as he seeks to teach and train men and women in Gospel work. Pray that the Lord will minister to him as he prepares God's Word for the conference this weekend.

Wednesday 3

Stas Efimov leads SGA's Gospel initiative in the Yakutia region of FAR EAST RUSSIA. Pray that the Lord will help him to communicate well as he reports about this ministry at the conference this weekend and at other events throughout the UK and Ireland.

Thursday 4

Pray for Gerhard Friesen, Bibel Mission's Communications Director, as he shares about our partnership in Central Asia at the conference this weekend. Gerhard has a passionate desire to reach Muslim nations with the Gospel.

Friday 5

SGA plans to hold its residential conference this weekend. Pray for all who gather, and for the guests due to arrive from E Europe and FE Russia. May this be a blessed time together around God's Word.

Saturday 6 & Sunday 7

May our Lord be glorified at the Conference today. Pray for SGA staff members and guests who will be bringing reports and presentations, and for Dr Paul Negrut as he shares God's Word.

Monday 8

We trust that the belated 70th anniversary events planned for this week will be able to go ahead without restrictions. Pray for safe travel and God's enabling as the team move throughout the UK and Northern Ireland.

Tuesday 9

Ben Faragau in ROMANIA asks for prayer that younger people will be able to take over the ministry. "We pray that God will raise labourers for the ministry of His Kingdom, for a new generation."

Wednesday 10

Peter Maga in MOLDOVA reports that God opened a new door for the preaching of the Gospel in a local school in Kozeshti village. Pray that the headmaster will allow the older children to attend.

Thursday 11

John Birnie ministers part-time for the Mission, mainly preparing material for publication. Pray that he and his wife Dorothy will be strengthened and equipped as they serve the Lord in various ways.

Friday 12

Pray for Mission School Directors as they motivate the students and organize the teaching sessions. Pray too for those who translate for SGA staff, and for those who work so faithfully in the kitchens and in administration. We thank God for their service.

Saturday 13 & Sunday 14

It is hoped that Conferences can take place this weekend in Gracehall, NI, and in Northern England. Please pray for all who gather, and that those who bring reports and ministry will experience God's power upon them.

Monday 15

Pray for Andrew Coleclough and his wife Jan living in Northwich, Cheshire. Andrew represents the Mission in the North of England/north Wales and is also involved with the production of video clips and other media related material.

Tuesday 16

We thank the Lord that our Medical Mission teams in UKRAINE & MOLDOVA were able to help people during the pandemic. With the Lord's help they have spared many lives physically and have had precious opportunities to share the Gospel.

Wednesday 17

Praise the Lord that through your support the Mission was able to help purchase ultrasound equipment for the medical team in UKRAINE & MOLDOVA. Pray that this will be a means which God can use to bring spiritual healing to many needy people.

Thursday 18

Alexander Polishchiuk writes that the Mayor of Frunze (MOLDOVA) has given the church a space where they can work with young people, teaching them practical skills, and also playing games. Pray that they will be able to use these opportunities to bring the Gospel to the youngsters.

Friday 19

Today and tomorrow Wayne O'Leary will be teaching in Medias, ROMANIA. John Birnie will be sharing at Ruptawa Conference, POLAND tomorrow. Pray that both Wayne and John will be greatly used of the Lord and be able to cover their subjects adequately.

Saturday 20 & Sunday 21

Pray for the students at Balti Mission School, MOLDOVA, as they come to the end of their studies. Derek Maxwell and Mark Foster travel today to participate at the final teaching block for the current students. May the Lord help the students with their exams and also use them mightily in His service.

Monday 22

Pray that, Liudmila Bantea, Balti Mission School interpreter, will know the Lord's strength and enabling over the next two weeks as she serves in this vital way and that she will be able to use the best translated terms to express clearly what is being taught.